

Shell Oil headquarters, Waterloo, London 2008

JUPITER Heating Systems were invited by ROK to provide a solution that would incorporate underfloor heating within insulation, with a load bearing surface and a final floor finish of large format limestone all within 70mm. In addition the construction would have to take a 5kN/m² to allow cherry pickers to operate in the future. The unique solution was achieved using the Screed Replacement Tile.

